Country Music Artist to Thank Children's Miracle Network Supporters at Montana Walmarts

HELENA—Rising country music artist Nathan Osmond will be in Montana November 10 – November 12 to thank Walmart customers for their support for the Children's Miracle Network this year. Walmart customers have been generous in their purchases of red and yellow paper balloons that are part of WalMart's fundraising efforts for the Children's Miracle Network.

Funds raised through Children's Miracle Network events stay in Montana to help Montana youth get services they need. Shodair Children's Hospital in Helena is Montana's only Children's Miracle Network affiliated hospital, and provided nearly $4 million in uncompensated care last year to patients in need. It relies heavily on donations and funds raised through the Children's Miracle Network to help offset the costs of these critically needed services.

Nathan will play a few songs, including "Sweet" from his album "Feels Like Heaven" and sign autographs at the following participating WalMart locations:

Great Falls: Tuesday Nov. 10 at 1:45 pm
Butte: Tuesday Nov. 10 at 5:45 pm
Bozeman: Wednesday Nov. 11 at 2:00 pm
Billings: Wednesday, November 11 at 6:30 pm

Shodair is one of 170 premier children's hospitals nationwide affiliated with the Children's Miracle Network. The non-profit, non-denominational hospital in Helena helps children of all races, ages, religions, and financial backgrounds, providing both acute and residential psychiatric care. Shodair is also renowned for the comprehensive medical genetics services it provides to people of all ages at its Helena facility and at outreach clinics across the state.

The Children's Miracle Network was founded in 1983 by Marie Osmond and her family, John Schneider, Mick Shannon, and Joe Lake. Nathan is the son of 1970's pop star Alan Osmond. For more information about Nathan Osmond, visit
